I. Introduction

Board of Governors’ Policies 2014-01-A: Protection of Minors, and 2009-01: Criminal Background Investigations, require the chancellor, as agency head, to establish procedures and standards for the implementation of requirements for background clearances for employees and volunteers in accordance with these policies and applicable state law.

B. The above clearances are required for the following individuals, within the following prescribed time frames.

1. New employees- pre-employment and then every three years.
2. Current employees without certifications,- by December 31, 2015, and every three years thereafter.
